27. [REDACTED] LIAISON Talked with Sam Hoskinson, NSC staff, about the status of Administration action with respect to charter legislation. I told Hoskinson I was getting the impression that perhaps David Aaron, Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs, was pulling out of his role as chief coordinator of Executive Branch efforts with respect to charters. I advised him of our conversations with Senators Richard Lugar (R., Ind.) and Jake Garn (R., Utah) and my suggestion that the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence delay dropping a bill into the hopper until the next session. I also mentioned that one of the alternatives the Committee was considering was not putting a bill in but drawing up a Committee print and circulating it to the Intelligence Community with a request that witnesses testify during the month of November.
